Leader—They shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods. Isa. 42:17.

School—O Lord, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit. Jer. 16:19.

Leader—Thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: The Great, The Mighty God, The Lord of hosts, is his name. Jer. 31:18.

School—Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also. Rom. 3:29.

Leader—Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceived that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. Acts 10:34, 35.

School—Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. Acts 28:28.

Leader—For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. Acts 13:47.

School—And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. Acts 2:21.

Leader—And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations. Matt. 24:14.

School—And all the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. Ps. 22:27.

Leader—For, from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. 1:11.

School—Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance. Ps. 33:12.

In unison—Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor, and glory for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Tim. 1:17.

It is fitting that the first Children's Day Service bearing the imprint of the Union Board of Foreign Missionary Administration, organized June 30th, 1924, should mark the 40th anniversary of the Service instituted by the Secretary, Rev. F. T. Tagg, in 1885.

The Society had in Japan, in 1885, a girls school, and two missionaries, and the Board had a boys' school, a night school, Sunday school, and preaching services, and one married missionary.

In 1925 the Union Board has in Japan, 14 missionaries, 37 Japanese ministers, preachers, 5 theological students, several Bible women. There is a Mission Conference with 2934 church members, 338 probationers, 910 enquirers enrolled, 3243 Sunday school scholars, 9 C. E. Societies, with 20 organized churches, 13 chapels, and 24 other preaching places.

A girls' school, 394 enrolled; 5 kindergarten schools, nearly 400 enrolled; numerous meetings are held for mothers, factory girls, children, blind girls, etc., besides evangelistic work by Bible women.

A blind school, two night schools, over 100 enrolled; and Nagoya College over 1100 enrolled; about 525 gave their names to become Christians last year.

CHINA. 6 missionaries, 2 of whom are on furlough, a Mission Conference with 14 organized churches, 7 other preaching places, 1 Chinese minister, 24 preachers, 3 theological students, 1 Bible woman, 1600 church members, 800 probationers, 340 Sunday school scholars.

Girls' schools 157 enrolled, Boys' schools 304 enrolled, Ladies' Bible schools 14 enrolled.

Medical work by Dr. Roberta Fleagle and Chinese doctor in 4 dispensaries. A qualified nurse, one in training, 3 helpers.

INDIA. 8 missionaries, 2 Indian ministers, 9 preachers, 9 theological students, 5 Bible women. A Mission Conference, 1 organized church, many villages and the Settlement reached. Church members 180, Sunday school scholars 459.

The Suvatra hospital in girls' school compound is completed, and a trained nurse, Miss Grace Perley, is in charge.

Rev. F. T. Tagg, in 1885, introduced the Children's Day Service in our Sunday Schools, and for 40 years it has been the foremost dispenser of missionary information, the creator of missionary interest, and the agency for securing a large part of the Board's annual income.

It is most fitting that the Sunday schools should honor his memory and raise this year at least $50,000 for the work he loved and did so much to develop.

The Japan Mission Conference, 1923, organized in 1892 with 3 American and 1 Japanese ministers, 5 preachers, and 2 delegates. President Rev. I. Inanuma is near the center, and holds a child. Rev. J. C. Auman is at his right, and Rev. E. I. Obee at his left. Rev. Dr. L. Layman was absent.

Send the offering without delay to your Conference Treasurer, and STATE PLAINLY IT IS THE CHILDREN'S DAY OFFERING FOR THE UNION BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONARY ADMINISTRATION. He will send it, with that statement, to the General Church Treasurer, Mr. H. C. Staley, 516 North Charles Street, Baltimore, Md.
